Friday night

Dear Sir,

I read the book immediately in order to not deprive ^{long} you of it, and as your boy said to the servants he was getting again this morn'g I gave it back with my thanks. You thought it was a mistake of his, because very likely he forgot to give my thanks.
Will you be kind enough to send him again for the beautiful vol. as I believe

Saturday

Dear Sir

I am sorry you did not let me have the book before the sale.
At that very sale I bought a vol. which was few numbers after yours and as I had already the other vol I cannot take yours.

Please to send me a copy of Plutus in your convenience, the boy can take at the same time your volumes.
Have you

Monday

Dear Sir

I have received the method and Judas for which I thank you

Please to not forget to send me 11 Vols in saying flatter magazine, by Handal and an other copy of the sublime air
of the Passion "Ab. Pado"

Also "Cottelcherubin" (Hellinguer Pedersen), edited
By G. W. Martin

Friday

Dear Sir

If you or your Brother go to morrow at the sale will you get for me

No 15 Alexander's Wright
if not above 3/4
No 54 and would repaid from what if not above 3/4
127 Carey 2 5/6
257 "as from" 9 2/4

Yours sincerely
W. Schell's list

he killed near Cook's ground. If not I will send it after to morrow.

The notice of Mr Farens is good, but he has been misled by Mr Fels in a great error about Cato. He could begin such an opera, but never achieved it, he made only the overture and to be and used the Overture for Ezio, to this abandoned work was of 1731 and not 1734 as says Mr Farens

Thanking you again
I am yours truly
W. Gale

Some means to tell me more about what period were published = being the following publications of music.

Phillips Maynard & Co.
(arranger)
Hatch at Boston publishers
Birchall - 150 New Bond Street
Gouling, Latham & Colman
20 Soho Lane
W. Gale

It is possible to ascertain if some of these firms had leaked

to publish any thing before the beginning of the century?

With thanks for the inquiries and trouble I am
Dear Sir
yours very truly
W. Gale

I want besides that the vicar of Bray
Barbara Allen
Come Ladies
The daughter of the Bailiff of Gylmington
Jally in our ally

The roast beef of old England
Blackey's Susan

Yours truly
W. Gale
