Dear Sir,

I thank you for thinking of me and sending me the interesting tomorrow evening. I will try to get the British quarterly, from which is extracted the communication.
I have been receiving it since two months ago and shall
now I am now very well.

With your letter to Willy,
the boys will leave.
Farewell.

Yours truly,

condemning far from Rowe from the condition of my health.

If ever you see the household Georgina Leigh, pray do not forget to remind her of me. I should like so much to be able to ascertain if there is something new in the collection of her friend.

Please also to send me your bill, it will be paid the 10th of next month.

Yours very truly
