Sunday Aug 21st

Dear Sir,

I have been so ill and I am still so poorly and also I must be busy in removing from here that I left many letters unread. Your's containing the notes by the Information office came safely indeed.
I know the document about is no
remember it is in the letters published of the British Colonies, even I believe I quoted it in my book, but I am not left any breach alleged to you for it.

you've very truly

I went to town again when I came home. I found the harvest even there will be some of the soil. I had put some in this number of the debits or after the rest of them. Had I had more I would not have made the collection. I am not very well, you old man.

For the office makers
I took out my pen, we shall both for some of these, you have done yourself.
