Friday

My Dear Sir

I am indeed very sorry since I cannot enjoy the great pleasure to see you on Monday

Friday. Monday after I left you a friend of mine ~~to~~ assisted from Paris to spend some days with me, and we have to know shall probably for Friday to go to whatever to wish

Warrington

July 3^d

My Dear Sir

Will you be kind enough to forward the enclosed to Mr Gandy. I forgot his address.

I have now 86 portraits of Baudet perfectly distinct. Besides the engraving of the statue and of the monument!

Hoping you are well and you will be able to return the Calvert's evening. I am, My Dear Sir yours very sincerely
H. B. P.

Wednesday

Dear Sir

I send you the vol of the Religie from which they took the 13 pages of Proposals. I shall call very much obliged to you if you can give me

the 13 pages nothing.

Also if you can be so kind from you will be where the two factors, and other adaptation by Arnold.

I received Mr Callaghan's letter giving thanks for the loan of Amadigi. Well, now, as day all the parliamentary speakers will now I must forget, to say the truth, that it is to you not to him that I lent it.

Mr. Edmund has letters being an act of courtesy & kindness to an author, and I am ready to lend him any score he wishes.

Yours very sincerely
Dear Sir
W. H. G.

Yours truly
W. H. G.

With these two not you will receive the three sheets of Surrell.

They have pulled out the great of tomorrow by figures. I hope you will not have objections to give me in return, your insight is the end as it is possible is correct.

Let the records have the price of what I have lately of the metaphysics Yours I remain my Dear
Sir
