Monday June 10th 1838

Dear Sir

I see Mr. Hall will have performed after tomorrow Ghuck's Organ in town.
 Will oblige me by sending for me a Sale Hall 5th near the entrance of the hall.
 I will go and to his day of performance, as well as you, as your late friend Thine aff.

Dear Sir

I forgot to send you the list of the Italian works of Handel you wanted. I am sorry for it. I incline to be as soon as I remember my promise to you.

 During the inter-regnum, Oct 4, in the first very Organ Concerto, 1738, when to arise from Henry, Frederick Guck, Oct 4, the 3rd of October, 1738, contains the following advertisement:-

'Soit d'œuvre, finale' - M. de la Vallée one six concertos for the Organ by M. de la Vallée, published that day, some of which have been already printed by M. de la Vallée, the other were not about the knowledge or consent of M. de la Vallée; this is to give notice, that the same are not printed by the author, in a few days, namely by the author, M. de la Vallée, on Oct 4, 1738, the announced the first with this address

Dear Sir

All what I know about the Organ Concertos 1st see you will find it in Safe of Handel pages 120, 177, 201, 202 and 393.

None of them as far as I learnt was known by particular names or numbers. The right numbers are naturally those in Walsh's Edition which was published under the eyes of Handel and corrected by him.

The only information I can add is that Walsh published on September 20, 1758

the shop was closed at that time will you be kind enough to leave the stuff in the hands of some servant of yours father saying I will call for it.

I hope you will excuse the trouble I give you and believe me to be Ever yours

Yours very faithfully

W. C. Macleod
