

Conventham

Friday

Dear Sir

I have seen Elton and Edwards in the week or two but I doubt very much whether is trace for I have the two sets in my collection with the rest of books
You will have to go one of your own pocket the 20 you give more than I wish as to bring me before the

Conventham

July 11th

Dear Sir

Many thanks for your kind information. I am grateful for them.

If the two hand-sets are really in the hand writing of Handel, we must have them. Will you send me the list of volumes at least it appears and if the time is too short,
to write in my name to

Conventham

Monday Night

Dear Sir

Will you be kind enough to look and ascertain if there is any thing for sale in No 151 Market Street and
"Liberty" of the great edition of Mr. Colburn and let me know in time
if it is too much trouble
for you.
I should like to have No 151 copying if we allow
God

Conventham

Wednesday

Dear Sir

I thank you for the startling piece of information. Alas!
my neural system has been very debilitated for some time, but now mind as I hope recover before 6 months we will see when that famous sale occurs if I can get one or two jewels. Let me know if you please when the sale takes place
Yours very sincerely
W. Hand

Conventham

Wed.

Wednesday

Dear Sir

Thank you very much with 't' writing in the
Ms. which
Yours very truly
W. Hand

A th; was more for J. has already and I thought that I believe I got it from you.

No. 70 minutes seconds by band. To have in the box some things unknown to us

Yours very sincerely

W. H. L. B.

Magistral to me of he will allow them to you, I cannot afford such extravagance

Yours very sincerely

W. H. L. B.

I have the abundance of things are necessary. I will have some

Mr Lacy to request him to go and see these chambers books in order to ascertain if they are really copy in Hansard's autographs.

Must I send you back the Catalogue in which were Abuel and Deborah

Yours very sincerely

W. M. L. G.

If you see Mr Chrylender

or Mr Shott at the Chamber books Sale, pray let them know you are bidding for in order ~~to~~ to present them to be our subscribers