

Dear Madam

Wednesday

Dear Sir

I have the whole of the collection you mention.

When I come to the friends I must first say to them, I believe you have a copy of the you & your friends that I shall take, but if you never get any thing for me there?

Your very sincerely

J. Wallington
on the 10th of 1796

Dear Madam
Books given Chelsea

January 2 1793

Dear Sir

Many thanks for your kind wishes and accept in return my compliments to the Ladies.

I know you have had a very busy year, being the year which had full of alterations, and I beg to wish your wife when she returns at her visit to let you I hope to hear of the same success. We are yours &c.

Again I beg I am very obliged to you

Wickham

Monday evening

Dear Sir

Thousand thanks indeed for what you had the kindness to copy for me. I am exceedingly glad to have to hand books and other things

I write by the same post to my friend Mr Collins to send you £ 11, 7.

You managed the matter of 11th 35th very cleverly. In haste yours sincerely
W. Schale

Dear Madam

Jan 2 1793

Dear Sir

I thank you for the late note you sent that I had already from Mr. ... the list of ... but I believe, as you are so kind & helpful for your attention, and in return of my ... as you & your friends are ... I believe you have a copy of the ... in ... I have ... thing like this

Very yours &c. W. Schale because of the ... of the

Wickham

Thursday

Dear Sir

May take the 8 ... Letters. 6th for I have not them. The dozen more ... will be very well - come whatever they may be

Do not trouble yourself about more addition. I do not mind at all their delays or refusal. I know that at any time I will be able to get what bring, no respect moral I am some from those that no best love when they are in trouble or when we love them.

I am glad your wife likes her little birds, and with my compliments to her believe to remain

Dear Sir

Your very truly

W. Scheele

the fact. was it really old or $23 or only $10.00? I suppose I'll remember anything you have to rest information for to it very acquainted with the Articles.

Walter you forward me enclosed to the Henry Letter, I do not know his address and I suppose you may safely get it along with at-hundred Rooms where he gives his house. You will oblige me when it
Dear Sir

Yours very truly

W. H. Schuchert

they have with more or less money I fear you are old two hours ago by my hand.

Yours very truly
W. H. Schuchert