Dear Sir.

I owe you many thanks for the three tickets of ten cents of entrance made. I am very glad to possess them.

The date of Miss's departure from England of 1792 instead makes me perfectly sure that the Duke of Portland is wrong in his statement about the date. It represents certainly Carmell, Senatus and Cuffon the former was exceedingly tall

Dear Sir

I hasten to thank you for your kind letter arrived this morning. I am convinced that the decision so glorious for the people's nation had saved my late asylum in Europe, for if the cowardice of Lord Palmerston had prevailed the exactions of this faithful and generous ally would have been greater and greater. ad

It has been enough of Middle, to be we know the result to be more or less this and outland as performer on the stage, but Leontine has the fame to have been very good looking and excellent actor, truly a looking more a hero than a lover.

Have you published the act of Almirante?

The nation has truly the glory of taking ^{her} own honour for, but for the feelings she had so firmly exhibited everywhere, the official people who are trembling

Send for the money.
When you like, but if you do it possible for you to delay, till the 12th of September it will be no very much for my account of that month as Mr Colton is already terribly overdrawn.

I shall be very glad indeed if Mr Platt would take Mellor and Sawtons, but the question is what notice should he give me in exchange.
