Sunday

Dear Sir

I received the subscription and found all perfectly right. You cannot thank too much for your kind subscription, & I should not have been able certainly to answer so beautifully my collection. I wish to be so filled with a little more time & money if I were thing. When I finally say to the King's College to allow us to give in the collection, I shall be able to give the sum of a full year's mean.

As may be seen, I include, for your kind...

Friday

Dear Sir

I forwarded you the morning the morning edition, & to your what interest what I received yesterday. I was very glad to see the intention, still more now that you have kindly taken so much trouble to attend us in making the Handel's collection. I am sure you have gathered and it waits for the great work in your hands. It did not come this morning, I hope it will be here to-morrow morning as the collection will look more wonderful.

Sunday morning

Dear Sir

I return the organ book of Callcott because it is not the one of Handel. The former is because unfortunately I bought it a few days ago. Wait overboard I have them as I told you. Heron's History. I prefer to get the collection complete at once. Perhaps, with what you have you can manage to make it complete. If keep the copies of Handel by Purkiss hoping you will be able to find the numbers missing which are 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28 and 29.

Sunday

Dear Sir,
Will you be kind enough to say to look through all your old Stock - and of me. If you cannot find them, I will find in my island order, but I do not like that way to answer to his nice proceeding, in look-too much to copy him. I think it should be better to have a copy bound fully bound and to get him.

As you know him you will tell me what is the best news likely to pleas him. A very rate of 80 and the four of it worth to you say news with my compliments on one of them. I will pay you a visit to-morrow and we will be side.

Here your last an order for

M. M. Lee. I fear indeed to get myself as too much trouble. See if you can get them. I will pay you every much.

I had already (by M. M. Lee) 20 pieces more or less one of the parcel from M. M. Lee's. I am sure they will be sure to get to you me something of them. What an exchange?
Please to give my thanks to you

By their addition when Mr. Lush and you come on Monday

Some medals were to be exhibited saying they should be sent to you and requesting me to send them for an order for 17 copies of the

Dear Sir

I see that behind the Standard arranged by Mr. Ward, West & Meyler some more Standard items by Stangh. Will you be kind enough to try to get the other two collections and also to mention another for vice and jeans, over there.

Can you provide me with details of their catalogue

Yours very sincerely,

the little bit of music I have exchanged for copies of my books copies of Handel published by Dr. Goussier - Onedra

3 (in sheets)
representing £30.0-0
Bartok or Mas.

507 by mistake
Cua of the 230 pms. I have returned 75 so I owe you 155 at all on that bill. There are many pieces from Traversi and Capelletti like Holder's, but I had them just now from them.

In the great you will find the libretto of Admetos for which many thanks!

Let me wonder before greatly
there will ye hump

all this sort of the harmonium Blackheath and Water Music your I have may I surely

W. H. G.

Remember I have in time an Italian libretto of Lucasie of Hayden as performed in Germany I will present to you with great pleasure as I consider it as a rarity

The new papers of 1770 you mention are very acceptable and I cannot but thank you for them Mr. W. G. may well be very welcome as had in the end what is not.

I will feel very obliged to you for to try to tell for me the wishes and I am sure

If you cannot find them, I will return those that I keep, as get the pen complete revisions of it
- 1000
