

15 Montpelier Row
Crickham
Wid. D. L.
Monday night

Dear Sir

I thank you for the extracts of what to get rid of a wife, but bought the book; what should be important should be to find the journey through England from which Miss Spence made the extracts useful for use the

15 Craven St
London

Friday night

Dear Sir

As I saw you are making a collection of musical prints & big your copy of some of them has a few more in double. Perhaps you will care to keep one in Mr. Allen of Mr. Lonsdale to whom I beg you to present my respects.

15 Montpelier Row
Crickham
Wid. D. L.

Friday

Dear Sir

Will you have the kindness to send in your Museum's edition of Dryden's works 109. 60 of the letter of Dryden above one of the eds in the Catalogue & dated 1837 or 1838. I have 1837 but it appears to be a mistake

Your's very truly
W. D. L.

15 Montpelier Row
Crickham
Wid. D. L.

Tuesday night

My dear Sir

I feel indeed very much obliged to you for your kind and valuable information. I took advantage of the opportunity of the insertion of your name which is interesting and of great

Yours truly
W. D. L.

Friday night

My dear Sir

I did not find the book you mention in the roll and the correction is so I will write to you. As I don't intend they intended it for you. It is in the roll of the roll. I have
John Johnson 1 C
Bygonne 2 C
Hildray and J. J. 2 C
Adm. to Mr. Johnson 4 C
Wid. D. L. 2 C
Wid. D. L. 7 C

basis of her novel is perfectly true.

I will take willingly the anon half works of H. be kind enough to keep them for me. I know the misprints of Newton, there is nothing in it of hand. Neither of his misprints but the name on the title. The rev<sup>d</sup> employed it to attract the public attention upon bad Book Discouraged, it is a puff in divine way.

I send you to day the St. Giovanni, and the two fresh issues in order to enable you to compare them. When you have done with them I shall feel very obliged if you have the kindness to send them one day or another to Mr Lacy 15 allere 4th Barnsbury Row London

Your extracts are indeed very valuable for me and I beg you

With many thanks for your kind reception of re main my dear Sir Yours's true & rely
W. H. G.

I receive you the L. and will be obliged for sending me the 2<sup>d</sup> Vol
I on essay on the genius of Pope

they know by tradition that it was the house of Handel.

I shall read with pleasure the critique on St. Luke's edition if it does not give you too much trouble, to get them. One may gather some thing in such review of the path.

Pray do not forget the notes from Brother on Handel which are rather valuable of the Martin. If we it not mistaken we can have here some loves of the greatest interest. Mr Lacy has been to the State paper office for me and Book that it is certain that Handel died there and I see by your new piece of investigation that he began to be censor in 1737.

Can they ascertain what was the rent?

As to the indubitation of premises it is undoubtedly the present No 57

I have been there, there is nothing which can remain under the great man

Friday night.

My dear Sir

I did not find the book in the shop in the cell and the variation is so that we have seen that I doubt indeed they intended to give him to be in the cell of that when killed 10

Bygarde 20

Billings and Jay 10

Ad note unnumbered 4

How short of letters 2

Thought forward 2

came back with the intelligence that there was not ~~there~~ any thing about Handel. he is most positive on that point. When you see him you can tell him.

I do not intend to give a portrait of Handel, as ~~he~~ would be too expensive but at any rate
I should not use the plate of Mr Dalmeida which is horrible according my artistic opinion.

I had the book of Daboury on the Violin but did not find a minute to peruse
it. I will read Goldsmith's essays at first opportunity.

Do you know what he says?
With many thanks again,
I remain dear Sir, Yours very truly &c &c

On Monday I will bring both the remaining of the roll.
's done at J. Nelson's you will see there.

Yours very truly

W. H. G.