Thursday.

Dear Sir.

I went yesterday to the circuit palace and came back so ill that I even should not read any letters. So I knew only this morning your invitation for yesterday. This is my excuse for my not answering.

I return presently to Pinckney ham. and I will see you on the 24th. Many thanks for

My Dear Sir.

I read long time ago the enormous blunder of Mr Purday about the Messiah before its failure in London just two days before the work was finished! It is curious how many errors are circulating in England even amongst Musicians about Handel and his works. They had, surely

Friday Night

Dear Sir.

As you either think you back the letter of the Friday evening every thanks for the communication.
In January 18 1782 and not later. With the most sincere wishes to see it brought forward. It will give much interest to the great general public. At the same time I shall be very glad to see it.

Dear Sir.

I thank you very much for the notice and will take unfeignedly pleasure to show folks and Sirs. if they can leave them for 12 lbs. 7s. 6d.
I believe a good price as of bought lately. I've got some of them and a copy of the 2<sup>d</sup> ed.
If they agree with 12 lbs.
I will feel obliged to you then for me. My loves advice of the great Delaney and believe me yours truly.
