

Cambridge,
Mass.

January 17th 1858

Dear Sir

Can you tell me in what year was founded the Society of Concerts of various music?

Especially words of them that I have visited 1786 and the last 1846 but I have been if they began before and lasted not longer, were they for a time and gratified? Do you know what was the cause of the Dissolution of the Society?

Do you know who called to

The Laurels
New Hampton.

M.D. 1858.

March. 29. 58

Dear Sir

My man called upon you Monday morning but you were not up. He will see you again very soon if he has not done already, and will take the parcel. I told him to pay your bill. I give you many thanks for the
you found?

Did you ever hear of

15 Mount Vernon Row

Westchester

Mr. Pillsbury

Jan 25th 58

Dear Sir

I thank to return you
Mr. Hornbush's letter.

I do not know your card
for it.

I have also now belonging to you the small mutual Dictionary of 1846. I will give it

with the Academy of Ancient Music? It was still a very progress in 1778 when Hawkins published his book, but other things of it. I thought and I said in the Life of Handel it was Pittobon?
I lately saw I see I made a confusion on this point between the Academy of Music and the concerts of Antoni etc I feel very obliged to you for the communication relative to the spotted of Mozart has most of Walt's to be economical.

I remain Dear Sir

Your's very truly
W. H. B. G.

back on Tuesday or Wednesday
when I am in town.

Many thanks about the Rogarth's for her affair. I will go
and see it next week.

Your's very faithfully,

Michael B.

a Life of Handel 1 Vol in 8. 1786. It is mentioned in the critical review of 1784.

If you had it or would be able to find it I beg you to buy it for me, you will have only to tell me the price and I will send you the money.

I say the same for history of music by Dubble 2 Vol in 8. 1789 and anecdotes of Handel and Smith. in 8. 1799. that I am very anxious to get.

I am particularly obliged to you for the care you took to send me that small napoleonic advertisement. I am happy for the English ^{people} that the mutual supporters of Mr Donagarte are not English men.

Believe me Dear Sir. yours
very truly.

W. Schelling