Dear Sir,

I have for the present no other information but that now I can give you.

I am glad to hear you intend to continue the measures in your hands relative to music and the drama of the late century.

I can only add you may take some additional steps to carry on your views.

Yours truly,

[Signature]

[Address]

November 21, 1856

[Signature]